Why should nurses from education and practice attend?

In the current issue of Worldviews on Evidence-based Nursing (February, 2018), Dr. Bernadette Melnyk, PhD, RN, FAAN publishes an URGENT CALL to ACTION to breakdown the silos between academia and practice and to integrate EBP competencies. Don't miss the opportunity to hear Dr. Melnyk share her solutions and talk with nurses from BOTH practice and academia to discover new solutions! We will be inspired by ideas from Dr. Bernadette Melnyk, PhD, RN, FAAN and over 50 oral presentations and 90 poster presentations demonstrating how EBP focused on quality and safety can improve education and practice. Quality and Safety Research: Recommendations From the Quality and Safety Education for Nursing (QSEN) Institute by Danielle Olds, PhD, RN (Chair); Mary Dolansky, PhD, RN, FAAN (Director)

In 2009, QSEN funded the integration of nurse scholars (pre and post doctoral fellowships) into the VA Quality Scholars Program.

Since this time over 50 nurses have completed a 2 year fellowship in Quality Improvement in one of seven sites (VAQS.org).

The Office of Academic Affiliations has opened up a call for new sites and/or redesignation of existing sites. If your school of nursing and school of medicine is affiliated with a VA, you are eligible to submit. Please see the call for proposals.
Join the new QSEN Task Force on High-Quality Mathematical Preparation for Nurses!

The 2018 QSEN International Forum will mark the launch of a new joint task force of QSEN, the Charles A. Dana Center at The University of Texas at Austin, and the Mathematical Association of America. This task force will work together to address how to strengthen the fundamental connections between mathematics curriculum, instruction, assessment, and clinical practice.
